Can anyone put me in touch with Capt Smitz of the MDWG? I don't know which squadron with which he's associated but I believe he lives in or near Catonsville, SW of Baltimore.

I've been getting a lot of requests lately to change e-mail address, unsubscribe, please add to the mdwg-info mailing list, etc. This is a reminder that we don't do this, you can do it yourself. All you have to do is visit the mdwg web site at <http://mdwg.cap.gov>. You'll see a link regarding the mdwg-info mailing list. If you use the form and follow the directions presented on that page, you'll be able to add/remove yourself from the list.

The rules for the Quiz Bowl to be held at the Wing Conference are on the Web site. It states that the first three chapters of the Aerospace book will be the basis for some of the questions. With the issuance of CAPR 52-16, cadets no longer have to take the chapters in order.

1. NOTE: The following applies to the Dobbin Road K-Mart in Columbia for Sat., Sept 30th and Sunday Oct 1st. SM Doug Barth, Deputy Commander, Fort McHenry Squadron, is coordinating the staffing for this site. On the same days Capt.
